E-mail: zelfbeschouwing@gmail.com

Dear kindred spirit friends of Jakob Lorber and related servants as Emanuel Swedenborg, Gottfried Mayerhofer and further writers commissioned by our Lord Jesus. Be all greeted in the Lord. The new doctrine of Truth is reported to Jakob Lorber in a non-mediumistic way. This divine doctrine has existed for over 150 years in book form and was taught nearly 2,000 years ago, to the students and the people of Jesus, in what was then Palestine. This "New Revelation" of Jesus - was revealed again in 1840 and by the Austrian writing-servant- or Prophet Jakob Lorber and many writings supplemented again. He received his information not on inspiration [trance] but he was in full consciousness dictated by the Lord Jesus Himself.

Dear Gerard,

Greetings from our church to yours.

Thank you for your bulletin that is so much appreciated.
I am sending you ours from April 2018, dear brother.

You might have noticed already, that the last article of our bulletins have amazing texts that are the result of deep study and research from our pastor Egídio, about Jacob Lorber's work, and how he end up for being part of a period of hard work with a prophet of our church and receiving revelations from the Lord too.

At the time, some members of the church didn't accept Love and Charity as the right path to be followed, a split of its members occurred. And that's how we became the only and tiny Portuguese community that accepts the Complete Light and the Great Gospel of John received by Jacob Lorber by inner voice.

These revelations were dictated by the Lord to two (2) members of our community to whom the Father called, one as the "Prophet", and the other as the "Scribe" (who recorded the revelations and gave discernment).

Between 2008 and 2011 were revealed the following writings that have been called as: "The Awakening of a New Day" which is being translated into English in India, and started to be published monthly only in our English bulletin, plus "The New Temple" which was already published as a book ( 538 pages) in Portuguese alone.

We might be a tiny church, but we are deeply blessed with spiritual gifts that the Lord in His mercy spread as pleased Him.

And as God works in mysterious ways, here we are bonded by the same kindred spirit and love to the Almighty.

We might be a tiny little church, but we are deeply blessed with spiritual gifts that the Lord with His infinite mercy did spread as He wish.

And as God works in mysterious ways, here is how we got in touch with each other, bonded by the same kindred spirit and love to the Almighty.

May God bless you deeply and all the good work you've been doing, and the peace of the Lord be with us all.

Manuela.

Answer

Great thanks for your special message. Perhaps many readers will take note of your new books. That our cooperation may be an example for the spreading of the New Revelations, and that many may follow. A lot of blessing can rest thereupon. Patrick from Tanzania

Hello Gerard,

First and foremost, I would like to thank you personally (via e-mail) for all the work you put into this group. I can certainly imagine that this is a large amount and intensive work. So thanks for all of this on my behalf and for everyone else in the reader group worldwide.

What I wanted to ask you is the following: would it be possible to give a short article about: "A look into the future!" What will life on Earth look like after the great cleansing, when will be "a new Jerusalem on Earth" and where shall we as humanity have only one Master, namely our more than loving Father Jesus. What will it all be about, during our life here on Earth?!

It will certainly be a boost for everyone to stay motivated, whatever work or life we currently have, especially as we live in the end times.

Steadily, I continue with my life here in Tanzania and that with my non-governmental organization that I have built here and that bears the name 'house of love', which tries to take care of the real poor people; it is like the story of the good Samaritan, but then a little more.

Thanks again for your individual simple, but unmistakable links. On behalf of Brother Patrick Ilegems and family. I send you and the entire group of readers worldwide my blessing.

Patrick.

ANSWER

Dear Patrick,

Thank you for your praising words, which only belong to the Lord. We are all individual simple, unmistakable links in the big picture. In order to make a contribution soon about 'a look into the future', which seems to me to be a very useful idea, I will certainly let my inspiration upon, but first I will put this suggestion in the bulletin. We have already corresponded in private and are now waiting for a response. May also great blessing rest on your special work.

Gerard

What is not known about the Old and New Testament?

The Bible [the Word] has been described in the Old and New Testament both historically and in a spiritual metaphorical way, that is, with corresponding analogies. The first seven chapters of Genesis and the unfortunately no longer mentioned book 'The Wars of Jehovah', which belonged to the Bible [and also the books 'the Sayings' and 'Jasjer'] were lost later but they are still somewhere in the Great Tartary. [See also Num. 21: 14,27]

That is why, in the book of the Lord's wars, is said to Waheb: "in a whirlwind," and against the streams: "Arnon" ... And the Sun stopped and the Moon stopped, until the people had avenged themselves of their enemies. Is this not written in the book of the upright? [Or: to the pious, or to those who are righteous].

Some retain the Hebrew word Jaschar in the text. This book, and more other historical biblical parts, which the Holy Scriptures mention, are no longer available.

The sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and did not hasten to go down all day. [Joshua 10:13] When he had said that the children of Judah should be taught the art of the bow; behold, it is written in the book of Jashar. [2 Samuel 1:18]

The first oldest church was purely spiritual and expanded over the entire Caucasus. This was the first spiritual race of humanity. They led a heavenly life on Earth. It was the 'golden' or 'Saturn era', the age of innocence, which was referred to as the 'head of gold' in the image seen by Nebuchadnezzar. [Daniel 2:32]

[Household of God, part 2, chap. 172:1] We have now spent seven days at the height with the children of God and witnessed and heard at great length - deed after deed and word by word - about the first establishment of the Church on earth through Jehovah's visible presence. Thereby we received a full explanation of the six days of creation as stated in the Bible by Moses, through which nothing else but the very founding of the first Church on earth is to be understood.....

The spiritual lineage of the people after the fall was called the second 'old church', referred to by the old writers as 'the silver age', 'the age of wisdom' as the 'silver breast'. These were now of a spiritual intelligent nature. "

The image seen by Nebuchadnezzar, which was depicted with thighs of copper, was the third church [as the second old church], which was spiritual-natural. The fourth church on Earth was seen in the image with iron shanks- the iron age [the Israelites] - and it is written about her: "I knew that you are hard, and your neck is with an iron nerve, and your forehead is copper. . [See also Isaiah 48:4]

In the Old Testament, the new church is already foretold in Daniel 2:35 and 44 and in Daniel 7:13 and 14. Her doctrine is mentioned in the dream of Nebuchadnezzar as the kingdom of the great stone, which became a mountain and fulfilled the whole Earth. That is the Lord Jesus Christ HIMSELF in regard to His Divine Human and Whose Kingdom will not perish in all eternity. [Rev. 19: 9] - she is referred to as the woman who is clothed with the Sun, the Moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head, which was persecuted by the dragon. Also the holy city, the New Jerusalem, which was called the Bride and the Woman of the Lamb.

The Bible, the WORD, is the Divine True Self, through which all things are made, in which is the Divine Wisdom and the Divine Life. [John1: 3]

[Sermons of the Lord-047:13] In this way the Bible becomes a source of help and light in all human circumstances, and the enlightened reader will find that for over a thousand years, this book has preserved the greatest treasures to be mankind's sole guide and prove how I had already made provision in those times, that nothing would be lost about what was said for all times and eternities.

[SL.01_047,14] Before long, people will be asked with greater severity, whether they actually know what they are here for and whether they know why I came to this earth. Now the time has come to remove the "bark" of the letter and phrasing of My Gospels and to show men the brilliant stream of divine light under this seemingly hard bark, so that in these latter days they might still make up for their neglect of themselves and others to enable them to fulfil their mission.

This is the reason for My numerous explanations and interpretations and for all these Sunday sermons, so that no one can say he had not known or understood this or that.

[SL.01_047,15] I am the God of light, love and wisdom. One day, when I shall return, no darkness will be able to exist beside Me. Therefore, it must become light in the hearts of all men. They must all learn to love in order to be able to use this love, combined with wisdom, on their fellow men.

[SL.01_000,07] They are in the book of the Bible for you; but short-sighted as you are, you do not recognize what comes to light from her words. That's why I came to help you lift this veil ... Take these preaches in hand, read the gospel mentioned there in the Bible, immerse yourself in the sense of the quoted text and you will soon become aware, what clarity and which warmth you will receive from these words of fatherly love! Do you feel afflicted more than once and even startled from your inner self, when you become aware, how far away you are from what you thought you were long ago, comfort yourself with it, that every mistake can be corrected if one knows it! Did the preaching make you see the error, thank Me then, that I showed you what you lack! It is then only in your hands to carefully remove this mistake, which you have not once seen as a mistake.

The book Gifts of Heaven part 1, chapter 17, describes that Swedenborg was personally awakened by the Lord and guided by His angels in all wisdom from Him, according to the degree of their love. What he says is good and true. About the Word: in the whole heaven, no other is recognized as God of the heaven, and that is the Lord alone, as the fourth gospel in the NT describes this: "He is one with the Father; that the Father is in Him, and He is in the Father; and those who see Him, see the Father; and that all the Holy comes forth of Him. Swedenborg says about this:" I have talked about this very often with the angels and always said that in heaven the divine is impossible to divide in three, since one knows and feels that the Divine is one, and that it is one in the Lord. "

Hebrew: Heavenly interpretation of Language.

[GGJ.07_032,04] ....God gave this command through Moses, as well as several others [commandments], according to the verbal [Hebrew texts] which were always only given to the male sex only and it was seldom thought of the woman ...

[GGJ.07_032,09], since so to speak the woman is the body of the man. If the head of a person becomes illuminated and insightful, - will not in the same measure the whole body becomes insightful [GGJ.07_032,09] For this reason alone, according to the (Hebrew) text, God apparently only gave this basic law to the man just like He gave to the human head the main senses and through them the intellect in the brain. As God first speaks only to the mind of man, He also speaks to the man, as the head of the woman like the woman in a certain sense the body of the man. Now if the head of a man is enlightened and very wise, will not his entire body be wise in the same way?

[GGJ.07_049,04] High in the air above the city, as if of rubies and emeralds letters, there was formed an old Hebrew text,

[Example old-Hebrew]:

בְּרֵאשִׁית

And the words said as follows: 'This is the new city of God, the New Jerusalem, which will descend from the heavens to the people, who have a pure heart and a good will; they will live there together with God and forever praise His name.' This script, as well as this whole appearance, could only be seen by those who were with me on the mountain, but by no one else in the whole country. [Note: Jesus spoke this to His disciples 2,000 years ago!]

[GGJ.10_190,20] ... [a Heathen spoke to Jesus]: 'And I was even more surprised when I perceived very clearly written words above and below the second sun, but I could however not read them, because they were written in Hebrew letters and therefore could understand their meaning even less. [Explanation of the 10 Hebrew letters in the, Household of God ', part 1, 3rd chapter, verse 12 according to their spiritual meaning.

[GGJ.05_072,03] The shape of the ancient Egyptian pyramids proves that this is the way the letter A has to be understood. The pyramids are large-scale copies of the brain pyramids and, as their name and their inner structure implies, used to serve the people as wisdom schools. For the meaning of Pira mi dai is obviously: 'Give me wisdom!' Their inner structure was such that it forced the man who was completely isolated from the outside world to contemplate his within, thus finding his innermost life-light. This is why it was always pitch-dark in the wide inner passages of such a pyramid, and not until man began to light up everything with his inner life-light, did it become light.

„ And lead us not into temptation “

Criticism of prayer, our Father '

By Klaus Opitz

As you know, in December, Pope Franciskus criticized the German translation of a sentence from “our Father” as, not a good translation: "do not lead us into temptation". So it is, that, not God, who throws people into this ordeal, only to see how he falls. - A Father does not do something like that; a father helps to get up immediately. Whoever leads you into temptation is Satan. "

However: "The Greek text has been translated correctly. He says: "and do not lead us into the testing!" (Thomas Noack)

There were now numerous proposals for an appropriate description of the controversial sentence: "and let us not fall into the traps of temptation," and "lead us not into the testing," etc.

In France, Catholic bishops have sanctioned the following description: "Let us not be tempted."

Here is the text of our Father in the formulation of the youth catechism of the Catholic church YOUCAT (2010) (according to Matthew 6.9-13; Lk 11.2-4) in small copy and in large copy our Father according to the dictation of Jesus to Jakob Lorber in the "Great Gospel of John", vol. 10, p. 70:

Text comparison:

Our Father in Heaven,
Our dear Father, who lives in Heaven

Your name be sanctified
Your name is sanctified at all times and forever!

Your rich come
Your realm of life, of light and of truth comes to and stays with us!

Your will be done, as in heaven on Earth as well.
Only Your holy and righteous will be done on this Earth among us people, as in Your heavens among Your finished angels!

Give us today our daily bread
However, give us the daily bread on this Earth!

And forgive us our debts,
As we also forgive our debtors.
Forgive us our sins and weaknesses, as we will also forgive those who have sinned against us!

And lead us not into temptation,
And let no trials come upon us that we cannot resist,

but deliver us from all evil
and liberate us from all wrongs, in which a person may become entangled as a result of the too great temptation of the world and evil spirits.

For of You is the Kingdom and the Power and the Glory
For from You, O Father in the Whole, is all power, all strength and all glory, and all heavens are full of these forever. Amen

from eternity to eternity!

[Photo: editor]

Interpretations according to the dictation of Jesus:

From: " Gifts of Heaven", part 2, "Our Father in multiple interpretation", page 160:

"..." and do not lead us into temptation!`

Again, this request is nothing more than an even stronger assurance of the earlier. For it does not lead us into temptation "means nothing else than: do not leave us to our own or worldly love, or let us not be active without your active love in us, or: without the heaven in us! So - our love is not beyond the all-only love of YOU!

`but deliver us from all evil! Amen.`

And in the last prayer there is nothing else but only the wish, the will or the living desire, totally affirmative of all that has been expressed in the previous prayer, as in all preceding ones, and means as much as: Father! Make us absolutely free of ourselves and allow You to become completely all in us, or: You, the scary, eternal, active Love; destroy all our (own) love and let you become only our love, or: let us be completely one with you!

So that is the true heavenly meaning of the Lord's prayer! That may well be taken into account! For it is a very precious gift of Love from the upper heaven! - Well understood?! Amen'. (Gifts of heaven, part 2, p

From: Gottfried Mayerhofer, "Life secrets", "Our Father" (page 164):

"...` Do not lead us into temptation '.

What spiritually means: `O Father, have mercy on Your weak child and help him, so that he does not often and against his will succumb to the temptations that others bring him!

Only in sincerely acknowledging his own impotence lies the whole of a prayer's prayer to an Almighty One, who calls Himself "Father" by people and who would like to raise and raise these people to His children! - would like to develop extra! –

As long as there are pride and overestimation of his own powers in a heart, no sincere prayer or request can reach Me.

What I once said is still the case today, namely: "And if you have done all that the people can, then you are still negligent servants!"

In whatever situations man may be, whatever circumstances he has to fight, he must always bear in mind that he is the least, but I have done the most!

So his confidence grows in Me, so he fights his rest, his peace; and only when he falls to his knees repentantly before Me and must cry out, Lord! What am I, that You are thinking of me! ", When he confesses and sees how little his powers alone are sufficient to come to his spiritual-eternal goal, only then will he understand what the help of his spiritual Father is worth and how much it differs from what other people can give him!

Only this confession, that without Him, the only true and ever-constant Father, nothing is possible, man can, after he has seen his impotence, move to the exclamation which closes this prayer by saying:

Because I have now understood that without my Father in heaven, I do not propose anything, I ask Him that He will keep me far from all evil or, as it is said in prayer:,

"to deliver us from all evil!"

That redeeming or acquitting everything he has done, with or without his will, must of course take place; otherwise progress is not possible and it is not feasible to become a child of the Father in heaven.

That is why this prayer also concludes with the request: "remove all that is dangerous from me," which could take me backwards instead of forward on my way. Forgive what I have committed and prevent the evil that is yet to come.

Only in this way can man find a rest, a comfort in prayer, which in few words shows him his entire position as man and child of God, namely that he is a being between two worlds, between the material and the spiritual, and that he must give the last consequence if he wants to be worthy of that name by which he calls upon the Creator of all that exists.

That is why prayer begins with the calling of the Father and ends with the prayer to this God who, if He was not a Father, could not deliver man from his evil, could not forgive him and could not give him confidence! '

By whom was Jakob Lorber dictated?

[K.O.]

Wilfried Schlätz has already studied a great deal about this theme, and admittedly, for example, in his article on the direct Words of God by J. Lorber. The article can be found in JESUS2030 under the heading Kommentare / Documentation. Here, an excerpt:

1.5. Jesus has dictated in the years 1850 - 1864 to His writing-servant Jakob Lorber (JL) gigantic work (at least 23 parts and 400 pages per book) word for word in Austrian German during those years in his heart.

Herein Jesus Himself had formed entirely new concepts such as: Shellglobes, Sun areas, innumerable universes full of Suns, the freedom tests through the will of the people, spheres outside our spheres, specifica of intelligence parts, etc. and especially every sentence that He dictated to Jakob Lorber He formulated them Himself. JL did not form and formulate these new concepts himself (verbal inspiration).

1.6. The Jesus works via JL, in a protocol manner:

1.6.1. The earlier conversations of Jehovah [almost 6171 years ago] (with e.g His conversations with the patriarchs ADAM, SETH, JARED, HENOCH in parts 1 and 2 of the household of God from before the Flood!]

1.6.2. And as regards the period about the earlier addresses of Jesus-Jehovah [such as His conversations with Mathael, which are shown in the 4th GGJ-255, an angel can also be commissioned by Jesus from Old Hebrew<sup>3</sup> in German language the years 1840-1864 translated and then dictated to JL<sup>2</sup>, for such an angel has access to the heavenly archives on the other side, in which every former spoken word of Jesus is preserved in all eternity. But every sentence through JL, in which the reader is directly and personally addressed by Jesus, naturally comes from Jesus Himself and not from an angel like e.g. in GH1: 1-4 and GGJ1-241 + 242, in which Jesus presents Himself to us today readers and explains e.g the harmfulness of the potatoes.

<sup>2</sup> [RB.02_261,05] Robert Blum says: "*I already know the one who brought bread and wine with him in your name. That is such a weak, earthly servant of yours, who writes down what you dictate to him by means of an angel in your name."

<sup>3</sup> [NS.01_022,08] Then the guest is led by the leader to this burning temple. There, in the middle of the temple, he sees a small altar, that is, an elevation as a pillar table on the ground, on which the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are located, written in ancient Hebrew. So Robert Blum's claims must of course be absolutely binding ...

Rebirth.

The Hebrew expression for 'rebirth' is called reincarnation and the word for it is GiLGuL [3-30-3-30 = 33 + 33 = 66] or Gilgal, the wheel that rotates. There is always the same time coming back in a different capacity, a different form of repetition. The same thing repeats itself in a different jacket. Every year we celebrate our 'birthday' and again a 'year' is over. In Hebrew, "year" means ShaNaH [300-50-5 = 355] something that is old, but returns. But never the same; there is something opposite, something that actually already exists. Reincarnation is on the one hand the side of imprisonment, while salvation is on the other side: freedom. Both aspects continue to work in the human. According to the Bible, the age of man can increase to 120 years, but in other places in the Bible - in the Psalms - 80 years is said. Life seems to have a certain size, but there is still a limit. 120 is the limit!

In Judaism stories go around, stories of a man who dies, but also just wakes up again, without knowing that he has died, and then arrives in a world where he sees everyone again. The deceased is at first not aware that he is actually 'dead' and it is compared with 'sleep'. Man has fallen asleep, died. The new YOUNGEST day is where you wake up and a new world reveals itself. Jacob, the son of Isaac, saw a ladder that reached the sky - the SuLaM = [60-30-40] = 130 and this number goes beyond the earthly measurable number 120. By contrast, 130 means "a non-earthly sphere" - a spiritual atmosphere outside the measurable time. In Romans it says: "Do not say: who will ascend to heaven, or who will bring it from the other side of the sea?" [Paul says that]

Dimensional dreams.

Recently I dreamed that I saw myself in the spiritual world and I stood in front of a large lake or a sea and saw on the other side a beautiful landscape and a beautiful city that shone with gold. I would like to go there, I thought. At the same time I heard a voice in myself saying: "But to get there you need a bridge and you have to build it yourself!" And then I woke up from my sleep.

Another dream, which actually preceded a day before, I saw in my experience a big dragon, which came from the northwest towards east-south. I saw his tail and head. And every time he took a human being from the Earth and devoured it. This made me very anxious.

The size of the dragon seemed to have a distance of about 40 kilometers, because as far as I could see he covered the sky.

Note: Dreams are not always easy to explain, firstly the 'dreamer' knows its meaning best, but sometimes an 'outsider' can just 'explain' the missing link better. G.

The accompanying Spirit.

In Swedenborg publications, edition 60 of 09-200, I read the following: "Swedenborg told a certain Cuno that his angel dictates him and that he can write quickly enough ..." Cuno asked him how he could meet someone in the spiritual world, who still remained in the land of the living [thus alive and still on the Earth].

Swedenborg told him that he had spoken to the deceased king [Adolf Frederick] for three hours, in the spiritual realm, who had died on February 12, 1771. Although the king had died a long time ago, he was busy talking to the queen, who at that time was still alive and on Earth.

Swedenborg assured Cuno that every man has his good or evil spirit, who is always with him, but sometimes retires from him and appears in the spirit realm. The living person knows nothing about this, but the spirit knows everything about it. Such an accompanying spirit has everything in perfect agreement with its human companion. In the spirit realm, he has visibly the same shape, the same form of face and the same sound of voice as man on Earth. He also wears the same clothes.

In a word, this accompanying spirit of the queen appears no different from the queen herself, as he [the king] has seen her [the queen] so often in Stockholm.

Where is Judas Iscariot now?

Jakob Lorber describes identical situations as described in the spiritual Sun, part 2, chap. 7: 8-11. The Prior asks Jesus, how it is now with Judas, the traitor? Where he is in the spirit world! "Jesus answers:

[SS.02_007,08] My beloved son, here you see another table; how do you find them? The prior says: o Lord, loving Holy Father, although the endless splendor of this room puts me down, it strikes me that this meal is very similar to that which You served on Earth for Your bitter suffering with Your dear apostles and disciples. '. The Lord says: "My beloved son, you have just spoken, because at that table I said that I would not take anything from the lamb nor the wine to Me again before it would be prepared in the Kingdom of God, thus in My kingdom again. See, now it is prepared again! Here we will again hold this meal together and we will not be sad anymore, but we will pass into the supreme joy. So all come to the table with Me and according to the order of rank as on Earth at that time.

However, you now also ask Judas if he will also be at the table. What do you think? Would the traitor also belong to it? The prior says: o Lord, loving Holy Father, although I know that Your justice is as great as Your love, mercy and pity, I must confess to you that it would be hard for me if I truly have to miss this lost apostle forever for You said yourself that this one was lost so that the Scripture would be fulfilled. This text has secretly fulfilled me with quiet consolation in the view of this unfortunate apostle. For I said to myself: perhaps Judas, although it was his free choice, also had to be a serving instrument, that is, an apostle of the dead, so that precisely by his betrayal your plan, which is certainly predestined from eternity, can holy and glorious be realized!

O Lord, most loving Holy Father, that gave me time and again hope for this poor unfortunate apostle. Even more, however, I was always consoled at the thought of how You asked the Father in You for all your enemies for forgiveness on the cross; then I could not exclude the poor Judas despite his suicide. Obviously, according to Scripture, the devil who was in him, was also guilty of his last act. That is why I would also like to know if this apostle, even if he is not here, is at least a little happy somewhere.

The Lord says: 'listen My beloved son, there is not one, but there are two Judas Iscariot. The first is the man who lived with Me on Earth and the other is Satan, who in his freedom at that time, had made this human being indebted to him. This second Judas Iscariot, while still entirely the basis of the all-lower hell, is not the human Iscariot, for he was forgiven. And to know to what extent, you only have to turn around. For the one who just talks to your brother and now also commits a love-betrayel by witnessing your brother in advance of My great love, is precisely that Judas Iscariot about whom you were worried. Are you satisfied with me now? ...
