Best,

As a Lorber reader, I am familiar with the strictness with which the Lord speaks through Jakob Lorber about suicide. I would like to add that I dissuaded people from committing suicide by telling them that they will have a much harder time in the afterlife. I have also been able to deter people from committing euthanasia from the knowledge of the New Revelation.

The transmissions via Living Bread are indeed not always straightforward, which is why I prefer to spend time on the Lorber works. But still, I wanted to call for certain leniency towards suicides. Many people from a deeply depressed state commit suicide. The medication (antidepressants) sometimes gives an impulse to suicide ... I know several people who committed suicide and I think partly under the influence of the medication! And that medication was not yet available in Lorber's time. That is why I call for generosity, compassion and prayer for those people.

My mother committed suicide in 1975 when she was 53 years old, I had just been married for two months. She always tended to depression. She had the first depression at the age of 18, there had already been a suicide attempt then (she had a scar on the neck). I never knew what happened before then. At the age of 31, after moving house and after the birth of her fifth child, she was admitted to a psychiatric hospital for 6 months. Before the admission, she begged my father for Gillette knives for cutting her wrists...

She then got through after administering insulin shocks. In the menopause period of 49 to 53 years, she was continuously depressed and there have been several admissions. I was still working in the pharmacy at the time and I cannot remember ever dispensing more medication to a patient than she had to take at the time. Three days before her death, the psychiatrist had also desperately prescribed an old drug, the package insert warning "do not prescribe for suicidal patients".

I thought then: that a psychiatrist would know what he was doing, but the fact is that the frequency of bouts of suicidal tendency increased! A visit to a psychiatrist on Monday and on Tuesday she stood in front of the attic window and was ready to jump. My father was just in time to stop her. On Wednesday she had ridden to the fishing pond by bicycle and went into the water, but a passer-by took her out. She thanked him and gave him money to take her back home and to get her bike and asked not to tell anyone. On Thursday she jumped through the attic window.

When we were all in the hospital, the doctor who came with the report of the death after they had disconnected the machine she was on, said to my father, Sir, your wife has died as you might have guessed. She died of her illness the way someone else dies of his illness ...

My mother was a very religious woman, the last days before her death there was a note on the washbasin in my parents' bedroom "God is Love"

During her depressive period, a neighbor with cancer came here for dinner in the afternoon because she didn't have the strength to cook for herself. After she left, my mother said. "I am much sicker than she is". My mother had very serious feelings of guilt, in the period before one of the admissions, she wanted to go to confession every day... caused by the thunder sermons in the church? I don't know ... In the first depression, she had been helped by her confessor ...

Exactly one year after her death, our oldest son was born, her first grandchild: a few weeks too early. This seemed to us as a sign from heaven. Our premature Piet had to be admitted to the pediatrics for a few days (He was perfectly healthy, but weighed too light), and see our father, who otherwise liked to visit people in the hospital often, had to take the step again after a year because his first grandchild was there.

About six months later, a clairvoyant psychologist gave regular lectures here in our area. The psychologist could discuss the current state of the soul of someone based on an object, for example based on a death-card he discussed the current state of the soul of the deceased. One of my sisters had gone there and given my mother's death-card. Then he said "her soul has calmed down"; a year later he said to me: "she is happy when you are doing well, she is sad when you are sad. If you are struggling, ask for advice, she will help you".

Now you can say: you can say that about everyone; my father-in-law had also died in the meantime and he said of him "if you are having a hard time, you can ask him for advice, but then you have to know what to do with it". My mother was also more involved with the people than my father-in-law, which is in line with their character ... About nine years later we asked that psychologist again at our house and when he touched an obituary from our mother: "She is all love"... At the same meeting, my father's second wife was also present. While touching her daughter's obituary card (killed in a car accident) he told her to let go of her, that her daughter's soul still roamed here; And my father's second wife did that afterward.

Somewhere the psychologist has contacts with a spirit or spirits in the afterlife that provide him with information. In any case, he has helped our family to reject the painful loss. I think the message that my mother is all love, means that my mother turned out all right....

This story just to call to you as Lorber friends, for mildness in case of suicide ...

Cordial greetings,

Answer

Dear Hilde,
You are absolutely right. You describe this, and so it says somewhere in the Lorber scriptures, that EVERY situation is looked at with "suicides. I have known a similar situation: my uncle in Amsterdam, that must have been about ten years ago, hanged himself. Terrible. I never knew him personally, and I never knew he existed before. Since I lived abroad for a long time, there had never been any reason to visit an uncle who lived far away, whom I did not know at first. I then prayed for him.

A female patient of mine, her husband had the Kahler's disease, [bone marrow cancer] and he got so much medication from the attending physician because of his terrible bone pain that he hanged himself. For a long time, I talked to the woman that in "paradise", so on the other side, he will certainly be well received by loving angel spirits. That was my first instinct to tell her. Hilde, thank you for your additional words in good manner, and fortunately that also creates a different view on this matter.

[received from Maria from Italy]

From a conversation between the twelve-year-old Jesus and two Pharisees: (says twelve-year-old Jesus):

"...Thus shall it be done unto you, because you arbitrarily departed from the ancient doctrines of God, and have in their place established your own very worldly human ones, and have fattened yourselves on the great gains which the manipulation of your human doctrines have produced." [3DT.01_026,09]

"But everywhere on earth, bounds have been set for man, be it for good or for evil; but, in like manner also bounds have been set to each institution, and also every nation. When it shall be full of the divine goodness, then the people and its land shall begin to overflow with blessing: if however a nation and its land become full of wickedness, then without any pity, a strict sentence shall be passed upon it. The nation had played out its evil role, and the country shall be changed into a desert, as will be the case with this country [Palestine] in a time not very far off! [3DT.01_026,22]

"For God, the Lord will not have men like unto machines of His omnipotence, but He will have them as quite free, self-working, and independent children!

He does not, in all eternity, need your offerings and your prayers, but so that you recognize Him in your hearts, love Him above everything, and your poor fellow men just like yourselves! Do all for them, that you can wisely desire to be done to you, and thus shall you find again all mercy from God, and shall be pleasing unto Him even as her dearest children are to a mother, and He will then protect you like a lioness her young ones, and will take care of you as a hen of her chickens! - Are you able to do that? O yes! You could easily do it if you had the right will for it, but in this you are lacking, and have always been lacking; even as all prophets and seers who have preceded Me, even so, I have spoken to deaf ears and hearts!" [3DT.01_027,18,19]

"Thereupon Barnabas came up to Me once again and said: "Tell me, you wisest of boys! How do you understand the following texts of the 54th Chapter of the prophet Isaiah? They treat of the consolation of Zion and run thus:

'Fear not; for you shall not be ashamed; neither be you confounded; for you shall not be put to shame. For you shall forget the fear of your virginity, and shall not remember the reproach of your widowhood anymore.

For your maker is your husband; the Lord of Hosts is His name; and your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall He be called. For the Lord your God had called thee as a woman who is broken and grieved in Spirit, and as a young wife who has been put away, says your God.

For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

I hid my face a little from thee in a moment of wrath; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, says the Lord your Redeemer!

For such shall be to Me, as the waters of Noah shall no more pass over the earth. Thus have I sworn also, that I would not be angry with you nor rebuke you." [3DT.01_029,06-12]

"The 'virgin' spoken of there, will only be created by Me; this shall be My new doctrine, for man, out of the heavens; and it is called a 'virgin' because no egotistical whoring and insolent priesthood will have previously misused it, for their vile worldly purposes." [3DT.01_029,16]

"This, my future doctrine, will also, for a short time, be called 'Widow' because I shall then be also taken from her through your wrath and your vengeance, but only with the permission of Him who is within Me and nowhere outside of Me!

But the husband of this virgin and widow, shall of course also be I Myself, because she is formed by Me. But who is really the man who has formed the virgin and made her a widow? Just read it out of the prophets, as well as the promises given to her; for I am the Man, and the promises concern only the mysterious virgin'

"Much later on also, 'times' as Daniel described them, shall come, in which even of this purest doctrine great abuse shall be made, but never of the virgin herself, only of the children and the daughters of the children of the pure virgin widowed for a short time. Naturally, those shall not be partners of My promises, but surely that certain 'virgin' descending from My Mouth, and her numerous pure children. [3DT.01_029,17-18]

"Do you know you are in your way evidently a phenomenon that has no equal, and despite your obstinacy, you still have given us very much pleasure. Your talent, Boy, would be useful, but you ought to get quite a different and wider education and unite a little more humanity to your truly great and previously nonexistent qualities; then you would be, later on, a man the like of whom would not have been known in the world.

But with your unchanging harshness, you will make very few friends among men on this earth. If you still increase in your strange power 148 over nature and have of course, no enemy to fear, you will surely be feared by everyone, but never either loved or honored! I however prefer to be like rather than feared by all men! Of which opinion are you yourself, or is anyone else?"

I said: "O yes, you would be quite right if all men were pure and good! But as men on earth greatly differ, some being good and many others bad, perjured and wicked, it would truly be a very difficult task for a just and true man to behave in a way which would make him loved by all! One would have to be wicked with the wicked, and on the other hand good with the good, and behold this is just as little possible as to be a kind of light which, at the same time, diffuses the greatest brightness, and at the same spot also the densest darkness!" [3DT.01_029,21-22]

"I tell you: The true friends of the eternally unchangeable truth of God will surely love Me, and that even above all measure; but men who trample upon the divine laws and truths, and live as if a God existed no longer, will still fear Me! For such men and worldly atheists shall then get to know that I stand absolutely no joke, and reward each one according to his works; for I alone have the eternally perfect power to do so!" [3DT.01_029,23]

Rudy V. from Belgium writes, among other things: "The time Jesus spoke to Jakob Lorber is the time of now (2020, ...). The new generation of vaccinations is systematically remade with nanoparticles. Pharmacists must replace their old stocks of flu vaccines with the new kind of vaccines, which will contain nanoparticles. This is, of course, a trade secret, but mineral nanoparticles have been proven to cause brain tumors and vaccine manufacturers are unscrupulous about the side effects."

"The Big Pharma provides very little information on the package inserts, but anyone who can read between the lines and do a bit of research can clearly understand that in addition to genetically manipulated substances (recombinant DNA and RNA), they must also contain dangerous nanoparticles"

"It is already being said by manufacturers that the corona vaccines sold on the market will not be able to stop the infection from spreading and thus cannot guarantee population health. Not a word is said about the side effect, but at least there are some."

"We must stand strong together, with Jesus Christ as Leader for all mankind. Now is the critical time to declare Him and share His teachings and warnings."

Dear Gerard,

I read this from you: "Here in Italy the media talk day and night about pandemics and other nasty things". And then you write: "Dear Maria, I would like to come back to this in the January 2021 Bulletin!" - What about the text and link below?

Sincerely,

01.10.2020 - The Hamburg doctor chief Prof. Walter Plassmann argues for more serenity instead of corona japaneseic: "It is not a deadly virus. The chance of infection is very small, the chance of becoming ill is very small and the chance of becoming seriously ill. or even to die, is even extremely small. Anyone who constantly confronts society with panic and drives it forward, so always with bad news, makes society sick, " says Plassmann, addressing these words to Söder, Drosten , Lauterbach and Co, see this link:

In response to the message sent by Maria from Italy, and also that of Rudy V. from Belgium and other readers of this bulletin, I would like to say the following:

1984 was the last time you could walk into a shop and stand behind a counter with a note in your hand and say what you would like to buy. The "grocer" would then take what he has in stock and - if possible, also have a chit chat. Those times are long gone.

Now we walk into large department stores. Just like big factories. You can buy whatever you want. Great progress from a global perspective. But not for the benefit of everyone. What prosperity. A thousand kilometers away, poor people are begging for a piece of bread; no work, no order and a lot of crime. Hell on Earth. Prosperity and poverty. Big contrasts. Intellectualism prevails.

Life seems to be performance-oriented. Power is of paramount importance. Human hearts seem cold and insensitive. The world is digging deeper and deeper into the matter, which is already in the judgment.

The world order is making plans to get people compulsorily vaccinated. A first step in depriving your freedom. Piece by piece under a decent and seemingly acceptable denominator. The living will often come to envy the dead. The real danger of the corona crisis is only the measures. We must no longer shake hands, hug each other; yes, you even get used to it, but still ... For the first time in world history, we experience a manipulated alienation from each other. Everything at a distance... Yes, the heads of government leaders are treated differently.

How does Jakob Lorber view this, I mean, what do we read through him from the divine scriptures? Let's talk about the vaccinations first. I received a message about this from Rudy V. from Belgium. He writes that this will become a hot topic in the coming times. In the book: "Healing and Health", chapter 20 we read a few things about this. I translate it very freely here in my own words in a paragraph:

"On the one hand, if a person really wants to be healed, he must do physical and spiritual penance on a serious level, but from the bottom of his heart, then such substances will not really affect him. On the other hand [chemical medicines, vaccinations], however, if the real atonement is lacking in man, then the medicine - whatever kind, including a vaccination, will obscure the man to sleep from the ailments"

The Lord says, "And receive it from Me, the time will surely come when the same evil will break through the veil in an intensified measure, and that this will result in certain death for the body and also often for the spirit."

Getting vaccinated or not?

The Lord: "Behold, this means that I have just given you is the most effective. And whoever has a strong faith and is full of trust and love to Me - verily, if I will not help him, he could inoculate himself with every poison of this earth, and eat the most beneficial herbs like an ox, all this would benefit him as much as a skull benefits a drop of balm."

'Do like this: live as simple as possible! Do not fill your stomach unnecessarily with all kinds of filth from all known kingdoms of nature, but use that what is beneficial to the body: simple food (mainly) from the vegetable kingdom, and from the vegetable food only those that have traditionally been used as nutritional bread. were intended for humans. And that also speaks for itself: everything to a limited extent and serves a purpose!'

Then you can be assured that your body will not be plagued with diseases throughout your life and that you will reach incomprehensibly old age because of this, without inoculation and other follies on the part of doctors. And then when I call such a person out of this world to My Kingdom, this will happen just as easily as someone who falls asleep very quietly, after having worked faithfully, vigorously and diligently all day long."

'If, however, you omit all this and instead take your refuge in vaccinations and all kinds of medicines, then the ultimate result is nothing but that you initially - viewed from a natural point of view - already in the years of your life. young people will become gray-headed and often one sense, after another will diminish, that you will become blind, deaf, sickly, lose your teeth, your digestion will deteriorate, and also all your cheerful vitality. '

"At the age of 40, everything will be much more difficult for you and you will be much more flawed than the ancients when they were a hundred. And of all this, only your own blindness is to blame!"

"The stomach is a natural aid in the production of nourishing juices in the body. However, if there are certain foreign constituents in the organism, they are constantly trapped in some organic narrow passage. Then when the stomach is stuffed with all sorts of useless foods and thereby increases and accumulates the juices, the foreign matter, instead of being able to be removed from their narrow passage and carried away, by the incessant imposition of the juices where they are located along the way of assimilation are only potentiated and therefore increasingly persistent.'

See, if instead of all the vaccination and the use of medicines, man nourishes himself in the right way and also knows how to fast, and if there is a strong faith and complete trust in My Word, so that the spirit, when the principle of life, grows stronger, then ask yourself whether such a person should not be better physically and mentally?'

"I tell you, if his faith and confidence are so great, then a new life can even arise from the dissolution. You, however, lead your children and yourself to Me in faith and trust! And truly I say to you, you will convince yourself that the matter with which I inoculate is the best! -Amen. That's what I say, the great world doctor! Amen, amen, amen."

Finally, Lorber writes in the book: Spiritual Sun, part 2, chapter 110:7:

"But that would be nothing more than sober views of the more educated part of the people about the secret political state government. But whoever wants to hear ridiculous must go to the dark village rooms of some farmers. Then he can be sure that in such a cabinet, he will hear everything that uneducated, raw human imagination can produce on its own. For example, that the emperor intends to poison a city, or that he wants to inject the plague [read pandemic] among the people in a country, or that he has entered into an alliance with a foreign monarch [read the European Treaty], a country people with the sword [read compulsory vaccination] in one night [read darkness] to in this violent way kill and usurp the goods of the slain subjects, and not to think of other follies, according to which the monarch on a particular occasion, either his own soul or the souls of his subjects personally entrusted to the devil for the benefit of great earthly gain! That all this is so, needs no further proof, as everyone is free to convince himself every day"

God, the Creator

Humanity has long been handed the tools [Van Bingen, Böhme, Swedenborg, Lorber, etc.] to apply an entirely new foundation of thought, belief and life in practice. Those who started this were very aware of the high spiritual content because Christianity lost its very essence over time.

The way of life of the current world [2020 and beyond] has burst at the seams. She calls nature "God" and no longer knows what God Himself is. For there is only ONE PERSON, Who is really G O D, namely, the Creator, Redeemer, and Savior. The prophet Daniel and the evangelist Matthew describe the "end of the century" and usually translated "the end of the world." The latter does not mean the destruction of the present world, but the death of an outer Christian church. And then a new fresh church comes up again. This has happened several times.

After this "outward appearance" life, there is yet another existence life: a definitive spiritual life, disrupted from its material ties and the height in the spiritual spheres depends on his life on earth. Swedenborg often writes in analogies and his books could therefore be read in the sphere of "correspondences". For example, one can lead a horse to the water, but not make it drink. Seen spiritually, the horse here means "mind", the water "sense" and drinking is "acceptance."

When the Bible writes about the sun, moon and stars, it should not be taken literally in astronomical terms, but the symbolism of the sun here stands for 'love of the Lord', the moon: 'faith in Him', and the stars refer to 'the knowledge of Him and His Kingdom'.

When the sun is dark, many people's love for the Lord grows cold. [Matthew 24:29, 12]. The Lord promises that He will come again as the "Spirit of Truth". He promised to be "in the clouds" [i.e. The new revelations of Swedenborg and Lorber] and in it, we experience His glory. [Matthew 24:30]

[For me, personally it is a pleasure - a glory - to read these books. It is as if these words heavenly enter my heart]

A new coming of Jesus has already taken place through a new revelation to all people who want to receive and have received it and are given the opportunity of the spiritual meaning of the word. In it, Jesus or the Lord speaks directly as truth to every person who longs for the truth and answers many questions that have stormed humanity in the many dark times.

The Bible has two testaments: the old and the new. First, in the Old Testament, God and Lord appear to us as Creator and then promise to return as Savior [Savior, Messiah]. Indeed, he appears as Jesus in the New Testament and promises to return anew as the "Spirit of Truth". In John 16:25 He says: "I have spoken these things to you in parables but ... The time will come when I will no longer speak in parables, but will tell you clearly from the Father himself. Jesus promises us also that he will not leave people behind as orphans, but that he will certainly return! [John 14:18]

Many people still ask about the true identity of God. How long does He exist then? The Bible is clear about this and says in John 8:58: "From eternity"! He is at all times without time; and therefore He also said: "Before Abraham, I AM!" The Lord speaks of his spiritual sun, which is the pure love of God himself and which is in its midst, and the radiation is called love and wisdom. We humans experience this in the material sense as the natural sun, which is pure fire and therefore in itself matter [death] and from which material warmth and light comes. See, both are related: one is life itself and the other is a material reflection of it.

The starry sky is immeasurably large. It is such an immense work, and it cannot exist for a single globe like our earth. The divine being is infinite and innumerable globes, all full of inhabitants, were created by Him. And we limit ourselves to this earth, while people like us live there everywhere, in the whole universe. So humanity is not limited to our earth globe only.

Life after death

What is death? The liberation of the earthly body and the spiritual body remains. Everything that a person has ever felt, thought and done, from the first to the last moment of his life, he takes with him into the other life, i.e. in the hereafter. The world of spirits is a temporary intermediate state preparing for heaven or for the infernal state. Those who arrive in hell do not do this through the Lord's doing, but it is they themselves who is willing to want it. For out of mercy, the life they have chosen and loved should not be withdrawn.

The question of whether there is something like predestination is not true. For every person is made for heaven, and so every person is ceaselessly drawn by the Lord to his designated place, which is heaven. If someone does not come there, it is up to them. Paul speaks of the third heaven in 2 Corinthians 12: 2-4: "I know a person in Christ ... who was drawn to the third heaven ... in paradise and heard unspeakable things that a person is not allowed to speak. "

As in the natural world, there also are nature, cities, houses, clothing, activities, literature, etc., but everything there is spiritual and much more perfect. The angels see the Lord in the spiritual Sun as Man, surrounded by solar fire. They also become aware of the Divine in all of their beautiful surroundings and in everything in their life. This inner perception is their greatest joy. The second church.

• The fall of the churches

The first spiritual generation came from Adam and was called the oldest church, who lived a heavenly life on this earth. Their time was called by the ancient writers the "golden age or" age of Saturn, "also called the age of innocence, referred to by the head of gold in the dream image seen by King Nebuchadnezzar. The old church was a spiritual church. After the fall of Adam and Eve and the flood, a new era came, seen by Nebuchadnezzar a man with a silver breast. This time was called the Silver Age, by the ancient writers.

The people after the Fall learned of God through a written Word consisting of the teachings handed down to them by their ancestors. The people before the fall could see from within [inwardly] what is true. The people after the fall could see from the outside [outward] that something is true. The books mentioned in the OT such as "The Wars of Jehovah", "the Sayings" and "Jasher" were among them and, as it was lost, are located somewhere in Great Tartary. [Numb. 21: 1.27 - Josh. 10:13, - 2 Sam. 1:18]

The third church, or the second old church, was a spiritual [inner] and natural [outer] church. Her time was called the Copper Age by the ancient writers, which was also depicted in the image seen by Nebuchadnezzar with thighs of copper. [Dan.2: 32] - With Heber [from the Hebrew!] Began the third church.

Her worship consisted mainly of outward things, such as images, rituals, priesthoods, precepts, etc., but she was not so concerned with the inward things indicated by the outward. Over time, people began to forget the correspondences [analogies] and with them the spiritual meaning of the representations in their worship and in their Word. Then they began to worship the images themselves and the things in nature and offer sacrifices.

The true history in the Bible begins in the OT after Eber; for that, everything is condensed [shown in compressed] or portrayed a history story. Fortunately, we know from 'the Household of God', that from Adam and Eve a historical development took place, however, as said - encrypted in the Bible, because it contains so many spiritualities, which could not and was not allowed to be included in the Bible.

With Abraham came the fourth church on this earth, meant with the shank of iron in the image seen by Nebuchadnezzar [Dan2: 33] the Iron Age. Of her it is written, "I knew that you were hard, and your neck was a nerve of iron and your forehead copper. [Isa. 48: 4]

In the case of good believing people, the inner life was even lost and they were increasingly prevented from absorbing the influx of love and faith from God through the spiritual world. Because more and more hellish companies occupied the lower regions of that world and thus placed themselves, like clouds, between God and mankind. [Isa. 59: 1,2] - Symbolism of the movie:

"Lord of the rings." They were the ghosts of angry people who have passed away and they influence humanity and the weather.

• Redemption

The New Testament teaches that Jesus was God and the Creator. For it says in John 1:10, "He was in the world, and the world was made through Him; and the world did not know Him. God could be in the incarnation of Jesus on earth, and yet be everywhere at the same time. He has taken into Himself the natural human. The conception of Him has descended as Divine Truth or the Bible, the Word and finally as a pure Divine seed was conceived in the womb of Mary. [Matth.1: 18,20,23 - Luke 1:35, - John 1:14]

The Lord could become visible to all by accepting the human, putting on the hereditary evil, and thereby meeting and subduing the Hells, uniting that human with the Divine, thus opening a way for Himself to the human. By simultaneously allowing a person to work in His emotions and undergoing temptations, and thereby restoring order in the spiritual world by his own power.

The Lord was called Jesus Christ, the Son of God, instead of Jehovah. But if it had been said that Jesus was Jehovah, they would not have accepted or believed it; Furthermore, the Lord was not called Jehovah concerning His acquired humanity unless he had fully united the Divine with man and man with the Divine Being. After the very last temptation, which was that of the cross, the disciples did not say Jesus after His resurrection, but "Lord", and Thomas said in John 20:28: "My Lord and my God!" Jesus also had to be in His human being [after the human characteristics] to seek contact with the 'divine' in Himself again and increasingly reached this insight into His early childhood.

Because in a time of temptation, Jesus was in His human condition and He humbled Himself as a human before the seemingly absent Divine. However, after all the temptations, His humanity became fully one with and absorbed in the Divine. Because he said: "From now on, you know [the Father] and have you seen Him." [John 14:7,9]

He is now present or directly with the angels of heaven and the people of the church through His divine humanity. Before that, He was indirectly present. Before His coming the Lord was only represented or pictured and He appeared through angels imbued with His Divine.

• The second coming of Jesus.

God loved the world so much that He gave His "only begotten Son". [John 3:16] This means His humanity, through which He sent Himself into the world. After all, the infinite God, who is life itself, cannot reproduce Himself in such a way that there are two infinite deities; but He can attract humanity. This is why it is said that the "Son" would be called: 'God with us; [Isa. 7:14] Whoever has not, and if he thinks he has, it will be taken from him. [Luke 8:18]

The coming of the Son of man in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. [Math.24:30] - A coming of the Lord as the Word [the Revelations]. The "clouds" are the literal sense, which appears dark because of natural thinking. The "power and glory" mean the inner sense, which is clear because of the pure Divine truth therein. The second coming of Jesus Christ as Lord was needed in a New Revelation of the Word to restore the rejected cornerstone; and to execute the final "judgment" on the hells in the spirit world who, because of its rejection by the temple builders, regained their former strength and finally, to establish the new heaven and the new true Christian church. This is already happening in secret and will fully manifest itself to the entire world in the coming decades. [See also: Matthew 21:42]

The doctrine of the new church had already been foretold in the OT. Her teaching is referred to in Nebuchadnezzar's dream of the kingdom of the great stone, which became a mountain and filled the whole earth. [Dan.2: 35,44, Dan.7: 13,14] - The truth of the Word is falsified, as has happened in the last centuries, from the first coming of the Lord until now.

Under the large stone, the Lord is referred to as Savior Jesus Christ. Regarding His Divine Human, Whose kingdom will not perish in all eternity. [Rev.19: 9] In the NT, the new church is foretold. It is referred to in the Revelation of John, where the woman is clothed with the sun, the moon under her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head, which was persecuted by the dragon. Likewise, with the holy city, New Jerusalem, which was called the Bride and Woman of the Lamb.

• The Bible or Holy Scriptures

The Bible and New Revelation are the Divine Truth itself, whereby all things are made, in which is Divine Wisdom and Divine Life. [John 1: 3]. The Bible is distinguished from other enlightened scriptures, for a continuous Divine inspiration is needed in such a way that the letter is sacred to every iota and tittle thereof and has an internal sense or meaning. [Matthew 5:18] The purpose of the Word, is the connection between God and man or between heaven and earth. The Lord wants to cleanse His church through humiliation, corrections and defeats, humiliations of all kinds - for these help the sinner understand, repent, and improve him.

As always, the works of heaven take place in silence, while the works of the world in the foreground are loud. This leads to deception and disappointment. Even so, internal changes in the church continue, which must necessarily be followed by external change, and this is fully in line with true prophecies about the future of the church. These prophecies say that a "new church" will emerge from the old one. Romans 11 deals with these things.

The New Revelation is nothing other than that given in the Holy Scriptures and represented by the great churches, but the one and eternal truth is again revealed, purified, supplemented, expanded, deepened and enlightened. This church is the miraculously enlarged bread of life for the spiritual famine of our time, and so it belongs in the hands of those who are called to distribute the bread of life - feed them! Shepherds know their flock and know best how to dose the new appropriately and in a healthy dose, and we can rest assured that the number of those who are already doing this in secret continues to increase.

The book: Gifts from Heaven, Volume 1, [20-8-1840] says: 'But I say to you that you were born and baptized in her, therefore you should not desire annihilation, but healing. I give you the balm and heal the hereditary problems in you. If you now live according to the rules given, the church will respect you. And when she experiences miraculous things in you, she herself will long for the balm and will quietly heal many of her wounds. But if you want to backslide, your brothers will receive little blessing!'

The newly revealed word of the Lord will not enter the church in any other way than through people who have this unity within them. The Lord of His Church once gave the light of truth and a great abundance of grace! That is why He says in a previously quoted word about attitudes to the Church: 'Look, that is why the wise man goes into the old junk room and often finds great treasures there covered in the dust of the ceremony. He wipes away the dust and puts the pure gold in his treasury. You also do the same!'

Those who follow this advice will one day find that the original truth of the dusted church treasures can be combined very well with the newly uncovered treasures, although it is not always easy for us to see it. In essence, then, there are not two churches, one internal and one external, but the Church of Jesus Christ has an internal and external life, and these belong together; The outer [building] should be the visible expression of the inner [heart].

Finally, we end with the third part of the 'heavenly gifts' [08/15/1840], part 3 - Therefore everyone remains loyal to his church, and if a Roman is blessed 99 times, then he corresponds to the obedience to his church and to everyone else only once, as he is a self-loving judge, with no humility and only a little love to be found. Truly, I tell you, it will not be easy for anyone to come to my living word in any sect, as only in the Roman Church, where obedience and the utmost humility are preached again and again in my will. But as for the ceremonies, none of them should be offended; for everything lives for the living, everything is pure only for the pure, everything is good for the obedient and everything is sanctified for the humble.
