... and the etheric body exploded!

A Dutch [anthroposophical] doctor led a patient into euthanasia. With great reluctance, actually. He had certain observations about this terrible death trial and summarized them in a lecture, held on November 16, 2014 in Dornach, Switzerland.

'With his permission, I was allowed to publish the entire German-language article, but a large part of this topic is not suitable for this bulletin. However, we want to publish something about it.

"The Netherlands was the first country in the world where euthanasia was given a legal framework. Soon afterward the euthanasia law was also accepted in Belgium. Switzerland is the third country in which euthanasia is regulated."

"When I focus my attention on the etheric body, I perceive that this body is the same size or maybe slightly larger than the physical body ... and that the etheric body changes in a certain way at the time of death. It stretches to a certain extent so that it extends outside the physical body, but maintains the shape of the body. At about the level of the navel, the etheric body begins to contract and rise as if in a thread. The etheric body flows like a thin thread and disappears somewhere in the hight. "

The procedure:

'If all conditions for euthanasia are met, it can be carried out. Two medications should be used that would otherwise be used during anesthesia and surgery. 'The first drug [2 gr. Thiopental] is a barbiturate that is injected intravenously [IV] and produces a deep anesthetic. The second medicine is a Rocuronium [Curare - with a high dose!], A muscle relaxer and is also IV injected; The patient then dies quickly after this '

"I [the doctor] was waiting for the moment to die to see what would happen. [Red. Note: This doctor is clairvoyant!] However, something completely different happened than I expected. Instead of the silent release of the ether body, as he described, the ether body swelled. It swelled up with great vehemence and EXPLODED in countless pieces. The chamber was filled with glittery chips. This only lasted very short, then everything dissolved and disappeared. The room became as dim as before; the woman's husband didn't seem to have noticed. "

"There I was, with the syringe still in my hand. I was deeply shocked. Immediately several things became very clear to me where the untruth is. It is not just about dying prematurely, nor is it going through the whole process of the disease, but it goes much, much deeper, much further. "

"You think you are helping someone, being merciful, helping someone who can no longer bear their suffering from the disease process. And afterward everyone is satisfied. In reality, something completely different happens. You do something that looks humane and helpful from the outside. But what really happens? The one who dies in this way is shot without memory, without life panorama after death and without spiritual light into the cosmos, because his ether body explodes. "[Ed. the etheric body is the spirit body of the being, which can never die!]

A drastic meeting.

"But much more happened. Because I was so shocked - the doctor told this - I might have loosened something from my body and I could perceive more. Suddenly I became aware of an angel figure. He was standing to the left of the dead woman. A tall and serious figure, terrifyingly powerful. I felt how his strength and power far exceeded human strength. It became clear to me that he had been waiting for me to notice him. However, he did not speak and looked at me seriously. I now also realized that I had crossed his job. He approached me and pointed at me. And he wrote in me. I felt how he wrote in my bones. He looked at me, punched something in my bones and then disappeared. "

"At that time, I had not yet understood what he had written in my bones. But I was kind of relieved in a way that he was doing this. I literally felt in my bones that I would have the chance to make amends here. The threads were already spun, he would bring us back together in the future! "

Necessary awareness development.

"I am convinced that the exploding of the ether body is directly related to the mentioned drugs! "Society is developing a procedure, a system. There is a precisely defined procedure, which is well put together and is also permitted by law. It is effectively reliable and elegant as well as intelligent, sensible and clean. What sense can actually object to that? "

"But in the hidden, in the invisible, something completely different happens. The people exposed to this event are thrown out of their karmic track, pushed out of their karmic trail and lose the overview in the spiritual world after death."

"The Arimanic [Red. Satan] is all the more effective because the procedure prescribes the use of exactly those means that cause the etheric body to explode. [Red. Note: the connected soul!]. But the materialistic world view will not notice this. What you can also see is that the system develops and expands independently. "

"I am convinced that other countries will follow the example of the Netherlands [edited in 2014] and legalize the EUTHANASIE. The only thing that can help is the development of awareness."

"In the years that followed, I gradually understood what the angel had written in my bones. One of the things is the task of naming this event. Speaking it out in places where there is a possibility that it will be understood and therefore not the event becomes meaningless. "

"Most of my work has to do with the auscultation of the heart into the Kasper Appenzeller system." [Red.: the voice of the heart!] - Dr. Zoltán Schermann, doctor

[Note; Here also the remark that there is a big difference between the astral body and the etheric body. - There is a lot to read about it in Jakob Lorber's writings.]

End phase of the end time

By Rudy Vercauteren

Our small reader group of Lorber friends had mixed feelings about the congratulations we sent to acquaintances and family at the last turn of the year. Spurred by Above, one (AN) of us was led to Chapters 86 and 87 in the Household of God, Part 3. It states that Enoch predicted against Satan that the latter would be exiled about six times the age of Adam on the day of this prediction, in which the publisher added Adam's age in parentheses and italic font nine hundred and thirty years.

However, the number 930 is not really correct because Adam was still alive then, and died only a few years later at the age of 930.

Satan's exile implies that this event is the end of the present era and that the beginning of the new era (the "millennial" realm) heralds in accordance with what Jesus promised His disciple, that He will return "in 1000 and once more almost 1000 years". (The Lord sermons, Introduction, last paragraph).

By this, He meant the next development phase of His Plan of Salvation. Enoch's prediction of Satan's banishment takes place on the day of 6 times the age of Adam, counted from his statement, which was put in his mouth by the Lord.

When we take the year 930 for Adam's age for the time being - which is further revised in this text because Adam was actually a little younger then - then I noticed in the following 2 calculations:

930	Adam's age (to be revised)
  x 6
5580
-2027	(2020 + 7, Jesus was born during the census of 7 years earlier)
3553
-3751	beginning of the Jewish era
- 202
- 130	Adam's age at the birth of Seth instead of the murdered Abel
- 332

930	Adam's age (to be revised)
  x 7
6510
-2027	(2020 + 7, Jesus was born during the census of 7 years earlier)
4483
-4151	the year Adam was created (see Swedenborg) *-
332

The birth of Seth (Household of God, part 1, chapters 30, 10) was a historical milestone in the Lord's Plan of Salvation, as was the placement of the first man Adam on this planet 4,151 years ago and the future banishment of Satan. The origin of the Jewish era is also based on historical facts (see the Tanakh) and is also a milestone in the history of salvation.

The remarkable equality of these two different calculations must mean something very special, because the Plan of Salvation of the Lord is characterized by the highest possible Order, which must of course be possible to check mathematically, however when and to what extent He allows it.

By multiplying one of the above calculations by -1, they become equal and it is possible to calculate the provisional number 930 more correctly. If we correctly determine the number 930 with the letter "x", then in the following equation, we can calculate this value x as follows:

$$6x - 2027 - 3751 - 130 = 4151 + 2027 - 7x$$

or

$$13x = 11966$$

So that:

$$x = 919,6923$$

x thus, was the age of Adam on the day Enoch predicted Satan's exile.

Since this meant not only the end of this age or the current end time but also heralding the beginning of a new and better time that will take place nearly 2,000 years after the promise of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ, we can increase 2027 by 6 years at most, for Jesus was 33 years old when he said goodbye to his disciples.

So if we replace the number 2027 with 2033, we obtain an x value of 920.6.

Conclusion:

This calculation shows that Enoch's prediction of Satan's banishment took place about 10 years (between 10.3 and 9.4 years) before Adam's death, who was 930 years old. This in itself seems to be just a brain exercise, but it does mean that we are now in the last possible 6 years of the end times, at least according to my verifiable calculations.

Blood types

In Japan, your blood type is checked when applying for a job.

This topic is also common in marriage agencies.

Because there is a close connection with your character and your blood type. The idea of the blood type comes from the Japanese psychologist, Takeje Furukawa in 1934.

Blood type A

Top managers often have this blood type. Blood type A people often have great achievements on the job and in private life. They are perfectionists. First the profession, then the private life. The group A people are honest, fair and loyal. At first sight, they seem reserved and uncomfortable. But in the end, they are passionate.

Blood type B

This group of people is self-conscious, but a bit clumsy or rough. They are hard on themselves. This is mainly to strengthen their weaknesses. For others, they are both tolerant and tough. Because they do not spare the mistakes of others. They tend to be jealous. Perfectionism is of paramount importance.

Blood group AB

This is a sensitive type, an emotional person. These people are intuitively gifted but difficult to read. They want to learn something and are open to new things. They are not tough or boring. They suffer from emotional moods, but they are adaptive and not dominating. They can subordinate themselves.

Blood type ZERO

These people have an intense emotional life, but are guided by the intellect. They are very social and want to see quick results. They are tolerant, even towards jealousy. They are successful in love. They often understand the practical use of love. But sometimes it causes problems.

[So far as this shortened version of the psychologist Furukawa.]

Children look like parents because they have their parents' spiritual atoms in their blood. Would you like to know more about food and blood types?

A modern missionary in Tanzania, East Africa

Patrick Ilegems

All life is based on LOVE and FREE WILL this is the greatest gift God has given us and see what we as humanity have made of it. LOVE the highest good given to man.

LOVE is: what life does, trembling with emotion. Love is all. LOVE is God, makes the poor: rich .. Without LOVE, what was fate? It would be nothing. Spirit of LOVE, lead us on. Penetrate us of your being, then we will wait undisturbed without fear. And be it short or long, God's love does not frighten death.

If my child-son later asks to go to the para commands, what shall I tell him, answer? Well, son! It took me and your mother a lot of time, energy, patience and love to raise you between the poor here in Africa-Tanzania respectfully and lovingly..

Now I should let you go and let yourself be broken down and humiliated by the world by unpleasant characters and people who do not love themselves and their fellow brothers. Be strong and humble and serve your closest poor brothers and sisters as you learned from your mother and father. Your daddy will tell you everything about the para command life.

Life is not a competition, life is sharing LOVE! Although I know that I will be crucified by many through this writing, but know that I have already been crucified, both during my military career and in civilian life. There are those who hate me, but I know they hated Jesus first. I send my loving blessings to everyone and wish everyone the best.

Although I had decided to become a Catholic priest at the age of 12 and had almost been enlisted by the brothers in Averbode [Belgium], I still went to the horticultural school to learn a craft there. So at the age of 13, I went to the horticultural school to learn a craft there. Para-Command -

After I was put on an early rest period or retirement at a young age (34) due to the reason of PTSD or post-traumatic stress syndrome Before I made the choice to go to the horticultural school; I had first made the decision to become a Roman Catholic priest because I had discussed this with my parish priest as well as with my mother.

After my return from the Somali civil war on December 28 in 1993 or better expressed in political power and religious unrest, I was confronted with my own spiritual unrest.

After receiving a warm welcome from family members and friends in the military barracks in Kasterlee-Tielen of the 3rd battalion of paratroopers towards the late hours, my then life companion drove to the house where we lived,

I have remembered who I am, I have reunited with God life itself. I have received other experiences such as Kigali the genocide that took place in Rwanda in 1994 as well as experiences outside the army. A soldier who says he has never endured fears in gunfights in a war is a great liar. A soldier who says he enjoyed shooting people is a psychopath of the greatest caliber and belongs in an institution where people are loved and tried to be brought to God, although this person will be difficult to repent!

A soldier who claims to have returned as the same person from the war front is a puppet theater in itself.

Every soldier returns confused and wonders! WHY !!!! I also had to rediscover that I must love God, my neighbor as myself.

Because of all these experiences and others; can I and will I help mankind, those who want to accept it: to help them remember who they are.

I can tell them my truth about life. Because I went through the dark and lived and mastered the light myself, I know what it is like to live in the dark and how to bring man back to the light.

This is a total rebirth that has happened to me and that we humans on this earth must all master ourselves.

I have written this for my earthly brothers and sisters and my parents who are very dear to me in my life; which I love unconditionally. As well as those who are my friends, who accept me as I am, with and without my mistakes and human weaknesses. They are part of my life and are my life itself. As a Lightworker, I will illuminate them with the light I have already mastered and lead them to the golden Divine light that has always been there.

I thank God for this inspiration of this writing. I thank God for all that I have already received and will receive in this life, and you know! I have already received everything; I am Divine as every other person is Divine; one just needs to remember.

That's all we come to do here on earth; remembering his Divine source and recreating new thoughts; every second, every minute, every hour, every day, all his life until he leaves his human body and embarks on a new journey. Dying is always a new beginning. Peace be with you all

Following this poem:

So Lonely

I'm so lonely here
I feel lonely and desolate
I'm alone here, but with my new friends, the moon and the stars.
They keep me company on this lonely guard.

On this lonely night, while the nocturnal sounds are familiar to you; but after every sound, you hear your ears prick.
Because with every carelessness, you are lost.
Then you fall into a dark hole; where the Grim Reaper awaits you with his faithful scythe and his big book.
The book where your name will be written there forever and ever.

PS: We thank Patrick for his openness. This was a story by a serious Lorber reader, a story taken from life - The poem he received from his friend, say .... also coincidentally - almost my namesake !!!

As I heard from Patrick: his wife has a simple [natural] pharmacy in the high mountains, to help the poor people, at 1,800 meters above sea level, and provide them with medicines.

In the meantime, Patrick follows a plane training to visit the people on the long distances as a missionary. Good luck with your pilot training and with great respect and Jesus' blessing!

A positive report on years of concealed scientific research into homeopathy.

The Australian National Health and Medical Research Council [NHMRC] has misled the public with a negative report on homeopathy from 2015. The positive results from an earlier version of the report have been deliberately concealed. The original version of 2012 now shows that there are indications for the effectiveness of homeopathy in several conditions.

Professor Anne Kelso admits that on closer inspection the report has not shown that there is no evidence for homeopathy. In August 2019, the NHMRC released the first report, after years of persistent lobbying under the Law of Public Administration and with the help of the Australian Ombudsman.

The results in the rough, uncontrolled version of this first report appear to be positive: there are indications of the effectiveness of homeopathy in e.g. complications after surgery and side effects of cancer treatments.

All treasures of Heaven.

When Jesus was about 31 years old, He said the next thing about humanity in the further future through the "writer of God" Jakob Lorber (1800-1864):

"A tribulation will come among people as there never was one on Earth! But from now [25 AD] until that time, they will spend a thousand and no more than a thousand years! From that time on, Earth will become a paradise again, and I Myself will always lead My children back on the right path. " (The Great Gospel of John]

What did Jesus speak about Jakob Lorber?:

... Except what they [the children of the world] invented and what great profit it can bring them! Those are the children of the world, who in some ways are often smarter than the children of the light!

But [...] I give my sincere children of the heart entirely different things, of which the clever children of the world will never get anything of any significance in their depraved consciousness!

- Look! My servant [Jakob Lorber] is truly poor to Me; for he could have been very rich because as a music artist, he also has the best skills by My grace through My grace. But he turned down appointments and very profitable proposals, all out of great love for Me. And he has two gilded coins, and is content with forty kruizercoins, and he distributed one guilder sixty kruizercoins among the poor. [Note: 100 kruizercoins were 1 guilder at the time!]

But that is why I have also opened all the treasures of heaven to him. Every star so far away is as well known as this Earth. He can behold and admire every star with the eyes of his spirit to his heart's content; But he is so little concerned with it because I am everything in everything for him! And behold, that is the only right way to My heart!

The rich young man in the gospel loved to keep the commandments from childhood and should therefore have eternal life. But it seemed to him as if he didn't have one yet. He therefore came to Me and asked what he should do to achieve eternal life.

And I said, "keep the commandments!" But he assured to have done this from childhood! Then I said, "If you want more, sell your goods, and divide the proceeds among the poor, then come back and follow Me, and the treasures of heaven will be at your disposal!" - Look, I am now saying this to everyone: "Whoever wants a lot from Me, must also sacrifice a lot to Me - but whoever wants everything, namely myself, must also sacrifice everything to me so that we become one." ..... But you [Jakob Lorber] have already sacrificed me a lot and you should therefore get a lot!

Clinical dead man saw woman pray...

A friend told me the following story about an almost death experience. A very serious car accident had occurred on a major highway. A victim suffered multiple bone fractures and serious internal injuries to important organs in this accident. He entered a state of clinical death and felt how his consciousness rose from his body and could see the whole situation of the accident. He saw how the traffic behind the crash site had come to a complete standstill as ambulances with flashers and sirens rushed past.

A woman who was in that traffic jam in her car couldn't see the accident, but she suspected it must be a pretty serious accident and started praying.

The consciousness of the man, who was clinically dead was immediately drawn to her prayer exercise. He noticed that it gave him strength. Eventually, they were able to resuscitate him in the emergency room and he came back into his body. As soon as this happened, he felt unimaginable pain. After months of hospital treatment and rehabilitation, he was finally able to go home.

Shortly thereafter, in gratitude for returning to life, he visited the woman to thank her for her prayers. She was very surprised because she couldn't remember doing something special. Besides, she wondered how he knew she had prayed for him. And how could he have found her? He then said that while hovering over the scene of the accident, he received much love and positive strength through her prayer. He was so grateful for her compassion that he then moved to her car to read and remember the license plate so that he could thank her later.

This story is a good illustration; it tells us, if we sincerely help someone who has died, that we can do very much. Any thought or spiritual practice that we devote to a deceased person can affect his consciousness. "....

The fast-approaching judgment before 2030!"

What both these angels of God and what I foretold as the Lord about the future coming of Christ, has now matured and will soon take place; because the preparations have already started. People's hearts now look like these times with their terrifying phenomena. They are full of lust for power, avarice, envy, gluttony, swearing and fornication, full of quarrel, strife, slander, full of robbery, war, murder and a plague of all kinds. The dissatisfaction and the lovelessness and utter mercilessness have taken hold of them, and as a result, such misery has now come over the Earth as this Earth has never experienced, felt and tasted. It is therefore necessary to put an end to this miserable time soon, or else those who were hitherto elected would be shipwrecked.

But before I can come back from the moment as the Lord and Creator, the ground must be thoroughly cleaned of all weeds and this purification has just happened on all points of the Earth.

- Whoever is consciously sick of soul and does not try to make his soul healthy, will not have much time before he will perish!

The time of purification will last at least four weeks; for there will be hours when more will happen than in a century.

-A longer-term is set at four months; for then there will be days of which one will mean more than it used to a century.

-Yet another term is set at four quarters; for there will be more in a week than in prehistoric times in a century.

-A further term is set at four years and a little more time; for then months will come when more will happen than in the prehistoric times in seven centuries!

This time is now as a red sky for that day to come for the salvation of the righteous and for all who are meek and good-hearted and love their brothers and sisters in My name; but this day will also come as a thief to all who disrespect Me and who have a hard and proud heart and consider themselves better and more honorable than their brethren in and why.
