CHRISTMAS

by Wilfried Schlätz

"I and the father are ONE. He who sees Me, sees the FATHER. But the Father who lives in Me does the works. I have received all authority in Heaven and on Earth. In Jesus Christ lives physically the entire fullness of the deity "[John. 1:30, John. 14: 9,10, Matt. 28:18 and 1 Col. 2: 9]

"The essence of God can in all truth be understood only with the heart and never with the mind." [Household of God 2/139: 20-22]. The Lord also shows us the smallest things in a miraculous way in the so extremely profoundly-written book 'The Fly'

The earthly body of Jesus was Mary's first and only son. It did not come about through an earthly- carnal conception, but the conception was a purely creative act of God.

Jesus said, "Only the first human couple received a body from the hand of God's will, all other human beings were born from a mother (womb). And so this body of mine is also from an earthly mother, even if it is not begotten by the earthly father in an ordinary way, but only by the almighty will of the spirit of God, which for perfectly clean and consecrated people is possible. At the beginning of time, with the still completely unspoiled, simple and God-devoted people, this was not so rare at all, and even in these times, it happens every now and then. That such people, who have been begotten in a purely spiritual way, are therefore more spiritual than those who are conceived through the normal way, is clear; '... [GGJ.06_090,08 ff].

Originally Adam had to build a bridge in itself, making it possible to go from matter to the spiritual. Adam needed only self-conquest and obedience, so this bridge was made, and both in Adam and in all people, all of whom descended from him, the spiritual life could have awakened thrivingly.

Now Adam fell, and with that, a withdrawal in matter occurred which was opposed to the polarized spirit. If Adam had not been disobedient, neither of his descendants would have been because he had destroyed in himself a germ that could no longer be inherited. But Adam fertilized this germ, and in his descendants the trees of sin rose which the light of the spiritual Sun could scarcely make visible through its rigid covering.

The soul of Jesus was able to break through this tree of sin and not only to pierce the canopy, but the man Jesus voluntarily gave himself this commandment of unconditional obedience to do nothing without the father's will and thereby became the shining example of succession.

In the man Jesus, the conditions were fulfilled that were necessary to bring back the former state of bliss for all creatures. But the fact that this path that leads directly to God and is opened, and that this way through the Son of Man, Jesus, who thereby became the Son of God, was fulfilled, lies salvation. [GGJ-11-75]

If Jesus earthly body had been materially and carnally conceived, then he would have inherited Adam's disobedience and would have been unable to go the way of absolute obedience and deliver us and all people from the compulsion to disobedience.

Because of his spiritual conception, his soul was placed on the same, neutral base where Adam once stood before his fall. And because the soul of Jesus, through their total and unconditional obedience to God, has taken the bridge of matter to the spirit, where Adam failed because of his disobedience, every man can now use this bridge to return to God through more and more to subordinate his own will to the will of God and to humble himself. Jesus, through his unconditional obedience, which was also made possible by his spiritual conception, frees us from the compulsion to disobedience, so that now, in spite of our carnal procreation, we can always use the built bridge through Jesus and return to God, if we choose it.

It is really a material-historical fact that on the birthday of Jesus a number of angels were allowed to clothe themselves with a terrestrial body for a short time to physically convey to the shepherds in the field the joyous message of the birth of the Savior, and leading the shepherds to the stable at Bethlehem [not Nazareth!] and worshipping the Lord God in the Baby. Many soul-ripened people were also opened the spiritual eyes for a short duration that night so that they could see the great multitude of heavenly hosts in their praises.

But with regard to my so-called brothers and sisters [Matt. 13: 55,56], these were children of Joseph from his first marriage; but not the children of Mary, whose first, but the only child was I.

As for the sisters, these were not the daughters of Joseph, but their poor relatives, and therefore they were also called sisters, they lived and acted according to the will of both Joseph and Mary. Three of these brothers came to Me, namely James, Simon and John; but two stayed home and continued Joseph's handiwork and took care of Mary until I gave her to John for further care. "With reference to the GGJ. p. 242 [editors: = also Gifts of Heaven 3_64.03.18, 15-17]

*[Red. It could also have been that the Lord God opened the eyes of the shepherds in the field as once with Elisha in 2 Kings 6:17: And Elias prayed and said, LORD, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the boy that he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of fiery horses and chariots around Elisha.]

Lost Bible Books

In the Old Testament we find fragments of lost books in the Bible [in ancient times!] Such as the 'book of Jehovah's Wars' [Numbers 21:14 or the 'book of the Righteous' in Joshua 10: 13 and 2 Samuel 1:18. These were chants, for the glorification of Jehovah, or devoted to the bravery of the warriors. Also the 'song on the defeat of the Moabites' in Numbers 21:27. Then

'the source song' in Numbers 21:17, 18 and 'the song of Miriam' in Exodus 15:21. All these stories are not mentioned in the Bible, although something was mentioned about it. Not to mention 'the sword song' of Lamech in Genesis 4: 23,24. Also 'her song from Deborah in Judges 9: 8. Although all these scriptures did exist, they have never been included in the Old testament for one reason or another.

Journey in the immortality

There is a German-language book [in two parts even] as a pass-through message, which the English medium LEES received at the beginning of the last century from an alien. He describes the life course of an earthly deceased in supernatural states [spheres] - and that is comparable with the books Heaven and Hell, in which Robert Blum describes his life and death in the supernatural spheres! - like Bishop Martinus through Jakob Lorber - up to the gate of heaven. It is very interesting and instructive for us Jakob-Lorber friends to see how this person is led by spiritual helpers - depending on their spiritual states. In the Jakob-Lorber Books, Robert Blum and Bishop Martinus are led directly to the upper heaven, while in the book, journey into immortality 'the author strongly emphasizes the heaven of wisdom. All in all a wonderfully beautiful, enlightening display. Really recommended! We have included only a few quotes for the reader from the first part and also translated them into Dutch and English. In this view, you'll get an impression, how it is also set with those spheres and you clearly taste the states in the spiritual realm.

- The color of the robe [that you wear] is an accurate indication of your spiritual condition and that applies to every person arrived in the spiritual realm

- The idea of having to appear in front of a judgment chair is a misconception. The Scripture has been interpreted too literally in a certain place, but it was more like a parable;
- The actual judgment of the justice of God is always fair and infallible. No evidence is required, except what the defendant offers from himself.
- There is no mistake for the Lord because whatever man sows, he will also reap it! The judgment of God cannot be mistaken, for no man will be called to testify for his fellow man.
- Everything that was artificially adopted on Earth - no matter what purpose, so all the wrong, all appearances will fall away from him. That is the task of the nebula to solve everything except the spiritual. Through this losing all the seals of earthly life are broken; that what was hidden will come to the fore; the books of everyone's life are being opened up. '
- The fundamental error of man lies in the view that his soul on Earth must make a final choice for his eternity, instead of considering life on earth as the first phase of his infinite development. [Red. According to Jakob Lorber and Swedenborg, it is urgent to make this choice already on this Earth!]
- Whether all people sleep after arrival in the spiritual realm? That is not necessary; the sleep separates two soul-like developmental states as we separate day and night from each other...
- In what way do the spiritual helpers actually recognize the many arrivals who have been entrusted to them? The color of their clothing [garments] - colors are an infallible indicator in the spiritual world!

The Third Testament – Mexico under the microscope

The Lord will return, according to the New Revelation and in particular to a country that is completely surrounded by the sea on both sides. That is not going to be Mexico, I thought. Because in the 1950s in Mexico there were 'pass-on words' given to a certain Rojas [16-8-1812]. His father was a descendant of the Sephardic (Spanish) Jews, Rojas taught for three years as a priest, so he was educated in the Religion - but he had to break it off for financial reasons. He could have been acquainted with the writings which were already translated and in circulation. Swedenborg, and perhaps also casually Jakob Lorber, in his books there is no mention of the NEW REVELATIONS, but the first impression when I read the first part was a poignant and monotonous impression.

When Jesus was on Mount ARBEL [the real Thabor] with His disciples, He spoke to ELIA, that THIS will be sent to this earth once again in the body to the people and his spiritual brother MOSES will guide him invisibly in the spirit. [GGJ 5-235: 9 and following chapters]. For us people, this very long unprecedented time is not imaginable. This Elijah - formerly also in the person of Sehel and John the Baptist - will once again have an important role to play as archangel and this last time his earthly body will NOT DIE.

Roque called himself the forerunner of Elijah. In GGJ 6-150: 14 the Lord says: "From now on, countless seers and prophets will be awakened for nearly 2,000 years because even an even greater number of false prophets and even very haughty, imperious and Love less false Christs will rise. But also the judgments will always go on, and there will seldom be a ruler who will not have to face a strict judgment with his people because of the darkness ..."

In GGJ11-30: 1 Jesus says to John the Baptist, who was called by the Lord on Mount Arbel [Thabor] as Michael, the Archangel: "You were My forerunner in this great time of My Coming to the people, and you will be back again when that great time comes that I have spoken about. But people will not recognize you, even though you will know who you really are; for that last trial in the flesh that is awaiting you, will become the foundation for the building of the enriching realm of peace!"

Mexico is for the most part Catholic and it is not surprising that a Mexican medium pursues the claim of the Roman Catholic Church, that Peter was in Rome and had met Jesus there, and that this is confirmed in such a way. [In fact, there should have been ten] who received the same message in the many Mexican churches on Sunday!] And with this, Jesus' words about Peter in present-day Baghdad [as former Babylon] are dismissed as a deliberate stumbling block.

Roges Roque was NOT aware in his books of the fact that Peter was in Baghdad. Roque thus erroneously writes that Peter was hanged in Rome and he had more of such statements, which go against, about what the New Revelations describes. For example, that man must incarnate 7 times before he can enter the kingdom of heaven. He puts the "Eternal Gospel" - described in the Biblical Revelation of John, in his book in the background and pretends his as the correct Gospel, which on many fronts stirs up many opposites in comparison to the pure doctrine of the Jacob-Lorber works.

Thus man is distracted from the true gospel by mistake. What could be the meaning of such a false promise?

Mary of Joseph

In the Revelation of Jesus by Jacob Lorber is said that the Lord Jesus warns His disciples not to show divine reverence to the producer of His body; she is indeed the best of all women, and no one will ever be like her after her, yet Mary, with all her preferences, will remain only a human being. And furthermore, He predicts that people will build more temples in later times in honor of her and this is what Jesus thinks a very wrong approach. To obtain eternal bliss through Mary alone! Yes, Mary is most worthy to be honored, but only the Father in Jesus is adorable! [Source: among others Bishop Martinus BM.01_060,12]

Hydrogen bomb Sun - Water on the Sun

A consideration by Helmut N. from Austria.

How can the 'hydrogen bomb sun' can contain water on its bottom? The water of the Sun is much lighter than that on other planets. That is why it is not suitable for shipping and also not for swimming. American researchers have discovered water in the Sun. The water floats like clouds above the sunspots. Their temperatures are 2900 degrees C. and far below the level of the rest of the Sun, where temperatures of 6700 degrees usually prevail.

With the help of a special telescope in Arizona, very dense, irregularly shaped clouds had been discovered, said a chemist from a research team.

In the Jakob-Lorber book 'the Natural Sun' it means, among other things: An obstacle is the various large water circuits, which in a certain sense separate about seven times from the pole to the equator. Such a water circuit has a width of several thousand miles [1 German mile is about 7 kilometers] and towards the middle to a depth of 10 to 20 miles.

Conclusion: I have never heard of it since. Probably cannot be what should not be ... Source: 'the Natural Sun' in the Lorber Book- Knowledge: Water on the Sun, dated 1-6-1995 ORF 1 [Austrian Radio-Television]

Note from the editor: in Gifts of Heaven, part 3, - page iG.03_64.04.08,03 and further texts it is described, that our Earth is a child of the Sun and the Primal-Sun. The Earth has the same primordial substances and it is also acceptable that the Earth has the same primordial composition as the Sun and water!

The Astrophysics claimed: 'A large part of the water must be older than the Sun. However, nor far from the young Sun, it was too hot, as if the water molecules in the surrounding matter could have dissolved, from which the Earth was formed. Up to half of the water on Earth is certainly older than the Sun. The water on the Earth would therefore be older than the Sun. How did the water of the Earth originate? Astrophysicists present a daring series of indicators. Accordingly, the H<sub>2</sub>O molecules are much older than the solar system. This also means that water in the universe occurs more often than expected.

Lots offspring

Jakob Lorber is according to the holy and the new Revelation family [descendant] of Lot from Sodom and Gomarra."All then ( at the time of Jesus) Gentiles, except for the Moors [Nefer] and the Sehinites [the Chinese] in the extreme Morgenland [the Far East], these are the remaining descendants of Lot. So in a way we too! Lorber would also be a direct descendant of David. Through this prepared gender-line,He was allowed to endure omnipotence of God's spoken word .

Lengths

In the Jakob-Lorber-Scriptures, but also in the Bible - references are made to distances, lengths and sizes. I have immersed myself in this and I would like to announce the following to the Lorber readers, and it is more to be thought of as an incentive, to further explore this further. Because here and there some questions arise.

The ell was the normal unit in the Old Testament. Read in Exodus 25:23, Exod. 27: 9, and verse 11-15. Also in 1 Kon. 6 and 7 and in Ezekiel 40-43, the lengths are discussed. This was not only known in Israel also in Egypt and Babylonia. The ell had the length of a normal arm, i.e, from the elbow to the top of the longest finger [middle finger]. The ell was again subdivided into two spans, and each span had the width of 3 hands [Exod. 25: 2]. Each width of a hand had the width of 4 fingers [Jer. 52:12]

At the time of Moses the ell was 48.5 cm and at the time of Ezekiel, this measure increased to 52.5 cm. A fathom had the length of 4 ells. In Hand. 27:28 - in the time of Paul - the depth of the water was measured. The Romans set a milestone or a marker every 24 minutes [Matt. 5:41] and 24 minutes meant 1000 footsteps or 1/5 geographic miles. [Approx. 1200 meters]

At the time of Jesus, the sand road was measured to Greek stadia; each stadium was 3 minutes or 125 footsteps. So in this regard is 1/8 Roman miles or 1/40 geographical miles.

EMMÄUS covered 60 stadia from Jerusalem, i.e. 180 minutes [or 11 kilometers] or 3 hours away from it. Something cannot be right here. Bethania would then have to be more close to Jericho. But from the New Revelations we know that Emmaus was still close to Jerusalem. [GGJ7-63: 1, GGJ7-70: 15 and GGJ7-130: 15]. Emmäus was not a village, but a small town. It had walls [GGJ7-132: 22], It was on a hill, and there was a higher hill that extended 30 man's height above it [GGJ77-143: 12]

The next village east of Emmäus was Bethphage, a suburb of the great Bethany of Lazarus. [Gifts of Heaven3-64-3-29-3]

Learning processes

That the good in the hereafter become better and the bad guys get worse, that is not certain. This always depends on the will of the individual. Also the 'good' can get stuck in its development or be overtaken by the willpower, both the bad and the weaker.

A child who is looking for his father is always on the right track, even if it is not always the shortest. The love of the Creator has made us God the Father in Jesus. The father always meets the child halfway, even though the child has not noticed it yet!

De methods of the burial

Does the style of burial influence the body that rises on the other side again with the true spiritual body? It is clear that some Biblical passages state that we will receive a new embodiment. [1 Cor. 15:44, and 1 Tess. 4: 13-18] A natural body is sown and a spiritual body will replace it. If there is a natural body, then certainly also a spiritual body according to 1 Cor. 15:44. Or do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your body. [1 Cor. 6: 19-20]. Paul warns the believers in 1 Cor. 3:17: "If anyone spoils the temple of God, God will destroy him!" [Red. Note: this is spoken by a SOUL BODY!]

The Bible never speaks of the burning of corpses in a positive way. The whole body buried, as with Jakob Lorber, is in the Bible the preferred choice. With a funeral in the Earth, we can be pretty sure that we do not contradict the will of God. The cremation has always been a pagan custom and was reintroduced in Europe in the mid-19th century by opponents of faith in a resurrection. Grave maintenance is now a purely economic [financial] issue and should certainly not be decisive for choosing a cremation.

Dementia

In his book, 'On the Other Side', Leopold Engel describes that people who suffer from dementia bring their spiritual suffering to the hereafter! Personally, I believe that the immediate situation of the deceased is only a temporary one, because through this mentioned suffering there is no longer any communication with the "ethereal" pyramidal brain synapses and the heart. According to Jakob Lorber, thinking comes from the heart - and not from the brain! That is a big difference. The statement by Leopold Engel is one with which he meant something else, as we also understood it differently.

It is a mercy from God if a man brings his whole identity as he is. Only slowly in the alien school of life, the human being can gain other knowledge and be given more light, so that every influence from the outside can cause the soul inner pain. After all, the brain was the interface between the soul and the outside world.

AT THE SICK BREIN, the soul withdraws more or less from this faulty switching point and buries herself. Here we must not ignore the love of the Creator. He wisely performs the best that the soul needs most.

It is, however, human to experience the ways of God here and there or to criticize them in a small way. God's wisdom and love is about everything, so here too.

In memory of the Lord in Jakob Lorber, He says in several passages why people forget something more quickly when they have become a bit older.

'What does the spirit win if man supplements his memory and his mind with pure dead shells and shadows Nothing; but he still loses and will be surrounded by a chaos of the outer bark, by shells and all kinds of shadows, so that he can not easily reach a freedom and even less to receive the vibrant light of his eyes.'[Ste .01_011,17]

As his organs in the senses are equipped with the highest sensitivity, the brain is also very sensitive and full of activity. And there is more intelligence in that than in all other animals, even the big elephants not excluded. For that reason, many species of birds also have a particularly strong memory compared to all other animals, which can also convince you from the fact that some birds can mimic regular human vocals as well as words and often also whole sentences, which is not possible by any other intelligent animal. From this, you may well conclude that this generation is closer to you than the other that, like you, is moving with difficulty on the Earth with its feet. [Gifts of Heaven , vol. 1 verse 6, - p. 68.]

Please note, however, that such a simple language as I have used in the index, I will not use, because yesterday someone could think for themselves that My servant [red. Jakob Lorber] might have been able to say such a thing, yet he is only a poor drifter because he knows nothing but what he receives from Me. [ Gifts of Heaven, part 1 verse 2, - p.112]

He knows that and he does not say anything himself and he cannot, because he knows less than any of you. Precisely for that reason he is also a fairly useful tool for Me, because there is almost nothing in his head, but from time to time the more in his heart, which I can only use because there is no memory in it, but a remembrance of the love in and to Me and in that memory the view of what I want and say. - This state of man is the right one. The state of the "handsome heads" is, however, an entirely false one and nothing else than the vain dreamery of sick, unnatural, used brains. "[ Gifts of Heaven, Volume 1, verse 3]

I say: "Yes, My dear friend Cyrenius, I cannot help it if occasionally your memory starts to fail you. This matter you now wish to have explained, I have already gone over at great length quite some time ago! You have simply forgotten. I will jog your memory a little and everything will then become very clear to you!" [GGJ.04_160,05]

The way creation should be understood in terms of nature, I have even tonight already explained, as far as it is necessary for you to grasp. Furthermore, Mathael who is quite familiar with comparative science has explained to you yesterday how Moses' scriptures should be understood; and I must again comment, My friend Cyrenius, that you really have a very short memory! A while ago I refreshed your memory, so that you are able to explore more freely with it, if you really wish. However, with regard to your doubts about the description of the creation of man as set down by Moses, I will only add a few pointers to set you off in the right direction so that you and a few others as well, can use them to work out the real truth of the matter. [GGJ.04_162,02].

You must absorb My words more deeply in your hearts and they will then not be so easily forgotten by your memories as everything which lives in the heart also remains fixed in the memory and you can easily access it at a suitable opportunity. On the other hand if you only try to memorize what I have told you, you will for the most part forget it at least a hundred times a year as when you are older your memory is not as fresh as in your youth. However, even the young quite easily forget what they have learned, far less older people. Anything that the heart has embraced has entered life and remains there forever! [GGJ.04_178,15].

Every movement we make is reproduced here thousands of times and just one or even a thousand earlier positions will remain on record in the inner chambers of the pyramids, always readily visible to the eye of the soul, because they are consistently illuminated by the spiritual light of the soul. The result we sometimes call 'memory' and sometimes 'recollection', because it is recorded inside the pyramids of the brain. These, however, are multiplied in turn by repeated reflexion and we can therefore carry one and the same object as innumerable images in our heads. [GGJ.04_234,04]

Says again Thomas: "Lord, strengthen our memory and we surely will remember everything and also think about it what we hear out of Your mouth!" [GGJ.06_145,08]

Thereupon I said: "I have done this anyway, as far it was possible; further, as your nature can stand it, it can't be done. However, when the spirit will come over you, he will guide you in all wisdom and henceforth you will not need your physical memory anymore. But for the development of the soul man also has received a physical memory, which together with a firm will is strong enough to memorize a countless number of words, truths and deeds; only when a person skims indifferently over all kinds of things and incidents, they also will not stick to the brain, and the reason for it I have shown to you quite clearly in Caesarea Philippi. Think about it and you will find it!" [GGJ.06_145,09]

Said I: "Rather say: 'Lord, strengthen our flesh and our will!', for the strength of the memory always depends on the strength of the will. Your souls are quite willing indeed; but your flesh is weak, and thus also your memory, which only will become stronger later, once I have sent the Holy Spirit to you. - However, now pay attention with the greatest concentration!"
